Christian Education Today?

by Ronald A. Brooks

A father sat in my office with a sixteen-year-old son who was in real trouble. The boy was facing a narcotics charge as well as other possible charges. The dad said this to me: "I just don't understand it, my wife and I have sacrificed to see to it that Bill (not his real name) would be in a good Christian school. I have worked two jobs and have done everything I could to give him every advantage. What is wrong? Shouldn't I have expected better than this from a Christian school?"

As I thought about this question, I realized that probably many Christian families have faced this kind of problem. I asked myself, "Did the Christian school fail to meet its responsibility to this young student and his family?" Even as I thought about this question I could hear that father saying, "I thought that I could expect more from Christian education than this."

That statement really provoked some thinking on my part. What is Christian education and did it fail in this situation? The obvious answer is that "Christian education did fail; the boy is in real trouble and something must have failed." As I thought about it, something inside seemed to say, "But is Christian education the sole responsibility of the Christian school?" A verse of scripture came to mind: Ecclesiastes 4:12, "And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken." Christian education is a threefold cord.

The first cord is that of the Christian family. God placed some specific requirements on fathers in Deuteronomy, chapter 6. Verses 6 & 7 say, "And these words which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children and shall talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up." The primary responsibility for teaching the things of God to children has always been and still is with the father and the Christian home. I believe that one of the main reasons why so many young people from good Christian families go wrong and get into trouble is Dad's failure to meet his responsibility. I know that it is easy to justify our position as parents by relating all of the sacrifice we have experienced to send our children to a Christian school. But do our arguments really satisfy God? Can we delegate to someone else the responsibility that God has given to us?

The second cord, I believe, is a good Bible-believing church and Sunday school. There are many indications in scripture that the Church has a responsibility in the education process. Colossians, chapter 1, is one such passage. Paul declares after hearing of the faith of the church at Colosse, "For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding" (Col. 1:9). In verse 10 he says, "...and increasing in the knowledge of God."

A child can attend the best Christian school in the nation, but if he doesn't attend a church where the Word of God is faithfully preached, he is not getting a complete Christian education. For it is in the church that he learns the will of God "in all wisdom and spiritual understanding."

The last cord then is the Christian school. The idea of the Christian school really seems to have caught on in America. U.S. News and World Report, October 8, 1973 issue, has an article entitled "Boom in Protestant Schools." Reasons for the growth in these schools are discussed. "The big impetus, churchmen say, is coming from rising alarm of parents over what they see as academic laxity in the public schools, along with rampant misbehavior - robbery, drug abuse and classroom disruption."

Bob Jones University Enters Textbook Field

by Elmer L. Rumminger, director Bob Jones University Press

"The time has come," the Walrus said, "to talk of many things." In the Christian school movement, as in Lewis Carroll's Wonderland, "the time has come."

The time has come for Christian educators to forsake ungodly, secular textbooks and develop documentation for our teachers that is in harmony with the theology and philosophy of the Christian institutions where they teach.

Unfortunately, for all practical purposes, there are no Christian textbooks. And the range of subjects is far broader than the garrulous walrus's list. Biology, geology, history, geography, reading, Bible... Just naming them all, without trying to reduce some of the new terminology (like "social studies" or "earth science") to comprehensible educational units, is enough to boggle the budget of any would-be publisher.

Why, then, would Bob Jones

University—already committed to an educational program that taxes its personnel and finances to the maximum—undertake to expand its staff and facilities in order to enter the textbook publishing field?

Simply because the time has come.

The Christian school movement was born of conflict. As secular school systems devolved into increasingly humanistic, atheistic institutions, parents and preachers felt a growing concern for the well being of their Christian young people.

The battle lines were drawn: on the side of eternal Truth—the Christian home and the Fundamental Church; on the side of infernal error—the government school and the textbook publisher. It was parent and preacher versus writer and teacher. Two against two.

To many, the course was

JACK MOHR

I want to read several Scriptures to you today. The first is found in Proverbs 14:34

"Righteousness exhalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." Then in Chapter 25, verse 5, we read, "Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness." Then one other verse in Isaiah 54:14 - In righteousness shalt thou be established; thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear; and from terror, for it shall not come near thee."

When Andrew Johnson, the 17th President of the United States, was buried in Greenville, Tennessee in 1875, they placed under his head a copy of the United States Constitution, and put in his hands a King James Version of the Holy Bible.

Blueprint for the Anti-Christ

by Col. Jack Mohr

This was indicative of the spiritual heritage of America. The Constitution was based on the precepts of Holy Scripture.

Our country was born in adversity. During that terrible winter of 1777-78, when the Colonial Troops retreated before the superior forces of the British and their Hessian mercenaries, all seemed lost. General George Washington knelt in the snow of Valley Forge to pray for guidance, men rose from his knees to lead a ragged, beaten mob of farmers and clerks to victory at Trenton.

When the first Continental Congress met for the purpose of drawing up a Constitution, it appeared they would have to give up their efforts due to dissension in their ranks. When it seemed their meeting was hopeless, the Continental Congress was called to prayer. They prayed to God for guidance, wisdom, and direction and from that prayer meeting in Philadelphia was born the United States of America, with its matchless "Bill of Rights."

America was born through the miraculous intervention of Almighty God, and I am convinced that only as America returns to Him will we be spared the horrors of atheistic slavery under communism, as the forces of anti-Christ triumph on every hand. We must return to the faith of our fathers, faith in the Bible as the Word of God...the faith which gave America birth.

Since the Continental Congress brought into being a free country, America has drifted far afield. We look at an America in 1974, which is sick with a terminal illness. America is suffering from the same symptoms other nations have had, and these nations have already been carried off to the

EDITOR'S DESK

An outstanding array of speakers is lined up for the 20th annual Convention of the Christian Educators Association of the Southeast to be held March 6, 7, and 8 at the Curtis Hixon Convention Center in beautiful Tampa, Florida.

Dr. Bob Jones, III will open the Convention on Wednesday night, March 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the main auditorium of the Center. This will be the first appearance for Dr. Bob Jones III at the Christian Educators Association Convention, although he is fast becoming one of the outstanding voices in our country in behalf of Fundamentalist's causes. The other speakers for the Convention include Dr. Charles Bishop of Bainbridge, Georgia; Dr. Ed Nelson of Denver, Colorado; Dr. Al Janney of Miami, Florida; and Dr. Paul Kienel, Executive Director of the California Association of Christian Schools. In addition, Frank Garlock will be in charge of all the music for the convention. He will conduct a combined choir made up of the individual choirs present from the different schools of Christian Educators Activities Association.

In addition to these outstanding speakers there will be approximately 100 workshops in most every area of the Christian school ministry from the nursery area through high school. There will also be many workshops for administrators, pastors, board members, and secretaries. This Convention is by far the largest gathering of Christian educators in the country. Last year 2864 delegates attended from 19 states representing 238 schools. Any person with any interest at all in the cause of Christian education would benefit greatly by attending. Write for further information if you are interested.

The first annual Christian Educators Activities Association championship basketball tournament will be held just prior to the Christian Educators Association Convention on March 5 and 6 at Temple Heights Christian School. Several states are planning to bring their teams, and this should prove to be quite a tournament. Winning teams will be introduced at the opening session of the Convention.

clear. It was not wise to expose impressionable young minds to error for thirty hours each week, no matter how strong the family altar or how powerful the local pulpit.

Private schools were the answer. Here parent, preacher, and teacher could present a united front. The results have been wonderful—no denying that! For those fortunate youngsters whose enlightened parents have enrolled them in Christian educational institutions, the odds have improved considerably. It's now three to one in favor of the Truth.

But the war is not over! So long as Christian teachers must apologize for their documentation, so long as they must explain away unscientific, unscriptural, and immoral error in the secular textbooks they have been forced of necessity to use—the conflict still exists.

"The time has come."

The Christian school movement has matured to the point where Christian textbooks are not only an economic possibility—they are a spiritual necessity. The pioneering days are about over. No longer can we afford to tell our young people: "Unfortunately, we must use this atheistic text..." Inevitably, youth asks, "Why?"

Why, indeed? If we believe what we teach and preach so strongly that we build Christian institutions to perpetuate the Truth—then we must go the extra mile. We must produce Christian textbooks!

The Bob Jones University

Press has risen to this challenge.

It is a formidable task—like trying to fight a forest fire single handed with a garden hose. Where to begin? The decision was made some two years ago: SCIENCE.

Strange that finite man, with minuscule mentality, should attempt to outguess the infinite, omniscient Creator on such a subject as Creation! Especially when the Lord has made his method and time table so eminently clear...and in writing, at that!

Stranger still that born-again Christians should try to accommodate their thinking to the ridiculous circular reasonings (?) and pathetic pseudo-intellectual posturings of uniformitarian "scientists," especially when not only the Scriptures, but also the evidence of geology, biology, and the other sciences give the lie to evolutionary hypothesizing.

True science is not in conflict with the Word of God. The "Bible and Modern Science" seminars presented by Bob Jones University faculty in many parts of the country have emphasized that fact. And the Bible-Science Debate Team has made it obvious that a Biblical creationist, armed with scientific knowledge, can make a monkey out of an atheistic evolutionist any day of the week.

The decision to begin with science textbooks was a logical one, then, and a natural choice to author the first of the series, PHYSICAL SCIENCE, was two members of the undefeated Debate Team: Dr. Emmett Williams and Prof. George Mulfinger of the Bob Jones University science faculty.

Another decision followed—a vital decision for the Christian school administrator: these texts would be written specifically for use in Christian schools. There would be no compromises, no accommodations, no watering-down of Truth in attempts to "broaden the market" for the books. The science texts will not "throw kisses" at unscriptural theories. On the contrary, such fantasies as organic evolution and the nebular hypothesis will be thoroughly debunked.

Authors Williams and Mulfinger—as well as the writers chosen for subsequent texts—will not ignore any of the significant speculations of modern-day scientists. It is their contention that Christian students should be familiar with as many of them as possible. But, beyond that, Christian students should be armed with scientific and Scriptural Truth with which to refute the error and outright prevarication which often masquerades as "science."

Having made the commitment, the Bob Jones University Press has embarked upon an ambitious program of production and publication. The Physical Science text will be ready in time for 1974-75 academic year. Research and writing are under way for other science texts; and books in other fields will follow as soon as possible.

Blueprint For The Anti-Christ

graveyard of history by the pall bearers of doom.

We have gone through a series of contrived crises. Since 1933 we have lived under a series of Presidentially-proclaimed crises. New Deals, recessions, World War II, the Cold War, the first "no-win" war in Korea, the Sputnik scare, the Cuban Crises, political assassinations, galloping crime in the streets, over 200 riots in major cities during the 1964-68 era, inflation, pollution scares, the second "no win" war in Vietnam, economic crises, Phase I, II, III and IV, Watergate, the Mid-East crisis, and now the energy crises.

We have gone through a 40 years period, when America has been divided as never before, when all our principles all our good things seem to have been shaken, or rooted up. We have seen our once great churches, which stood as "lighthouses" on the landscape of America, disintegrate into "religious country clubs," that men joined to help their prestige in the community; while others have become mere "religious honky-tonks" replete with flashing psychedelic lights, religious rock and roll music, and homosexual ministers. America has gone through a period of intense moral and spiritual decline, when even our Public Education system has turned against the principles of decency, and where children are taught to disrespect their parents as "old fogies" who don't know what is happening, and where Christian principles are "passe," something from the Dark Ages.

America's watchword has become: "You only go around once in life; so live with gusto. Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow you may die. If it makes you feel good, or if the majority says it's ok, then it must be good. After all, the most important thing in life is to 'do your thing.'" Whatever that may be!

We have seen America's strength abroad evaporate as her spiritual strength at home has been deliberately destroyed. Over a hundred years ago, a French political philosopher by the name of Alexis de Tocqueville visited America. When he returned home, he wrote to an American friend in the following words: "I came to America searching for her greatness. I looked in her commodious harbors and it was not there. I searched for it in her great cities and I could not find it. I looked in the incomparable fields of the mid-west, and it was not there. It was not until I looked into the churches of America, and listened as her pulpits flamed against unrighteousness, that I realized that America is great, because she is good; when she ceases to be good, she will cease to be great."

We have seen this principle in operation in the past fifty years, as America's strength at home and abroad has gone down hill in the same ratio that her moral and spiritual strength has been eroded.

During this time of America's decline, we have seen a steady decrease in spirituality, while at the same time corruption has been rampant and crime has increased by leaps and bounds until it is unsafe to walk the streets of many American cities after the sun has set.

America's youth has turned away from God to a cynical, pseudo-intellectualism that places their intelligence above that of God and which hides behind the feeble facade of Humanitarianism; a position where they sneer at the supernatural rebirth of salvation, while guiding their lives by the ancient art of the horoscope, witchcraft and Satan-worship.

Our Federal Government has moved from being the "servant of the People," as envisioned by the Founding Fathers, into a Frankensteinian monster which threatens to devour our basic freedoms. We have seen America's courage and patriotism move from that of Patrick Henry, as he said: "Give me liberty or give me death!" to the maudlin cries of the National Council of Church Leaders who say: "It's better to be Red than dead!" Where

Teaching Tips

BY ALICE ANN SMITH

In teaching any subject, there are certain prescribed materials to be covered and many general routines to follow, but a master teacher is always eager to find new ways to present materials and interesting methods for review.

A good idea for review is to find a hidden word within a sentence. The word may be contained completely in one word or one part may be in each of two or more words. The following sentences contain the names of U.S. Presidents.

1. Art hurt himself while skiing.
2. Uncle Vel and Aunt Anna came for dinner.
3. They went after school for a swim.
4. Think how cool I'd get in Alaska.
5. Who overheard the boys' conversation?
6. Sugar fields are burning after harvest.

Review of Bible characters, geographic locations and abbreviations for months of the year are other areas easily adaptable to this idea. A type of acrostic forming a vertical word from horizontal clues is fun and can be brain taxing for students to formulate on their own. This example uses states and capitals to form a patriotic word. Students should number from 1-7 on their papers.

1. Capital of Arkansas.
2. Capital of Indiana.
3. Capital of North Dakota.
4. State whose capital is Augusta (use the last letter). 5. State whose capital is Providence. 6. State whose capital is Nashville. 7. State whose capital is Cheyenne (use the second letter). From these correct answers the word LIBERTY will be formed vertically.

1. Little Rock
2. Indianapolis
3. Bismarek
4. Maine
5. Rhode Island
6. Tennessee
7. WYoming

A game for a rainy day following a patriotic theme is a variation of "Black Magic" called "Patriotic Magic." Two people must know how to play. One leaves the room. An object is chosen. The person returns and the signal for the correct object is that a red object is pointed to just before the correct one. The second round a white object becomes the signal and the third time a blue object gives the signal.

Christian Education Today?

tion." Dr. Max Rafferty in his new book, Classroom Countdown, says, "In several of our big city schools, policemen have to be stationed in the corridors in order to protect the teacher from his pupils, and the pupils from each other." A pastor from New York City, interviewed on a radio program, Christian School Comment, said that 50 percent of all high school students and 30 percent of the elementary students in New York City are on drugs of some kind.

Dr. Calvin Grieder, writing in The Nation's Schools, said: "Relaxation of standards is apparent in so many aspects of life in these United States. In academic affairs I see this every day in the widespread abolition of grades, examinations, and attendance requirements."

U.S. News goes on to say that there is a search for discipline. "What parents are seeking is a learning environment for their youngsters that is more disciplined and more religious than can be found in the public schools." Dr. Paul Kiene! says: "Christian schools are flourishing because they are an effort to bring back some normalcy to the process of education. They provide an education where Christ is honored and the teachings of God's Word are freely shared with a generation of youngsters who are reaching out for light in a very dark world."

"Two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken." How many cords of Christian education does your child have?

will it all end?

A recent report indicated that only 5 percent of the American people are in church on any given Sunday morning and that less than 2 percent attend the evening services. Only 28 percent of the American people attend church on a more or less regular basis. This means that 72 percent of all Americans do not think enough about God to even do Him the honor of attending His house. This indicates to me that America could now be classified as a "heathen nation."

There is a further shocking thing we must realize; that is that God's blessing cannot and will not come to a people which for the most part have turned their backs on Him. This in turn means that America is ripe for a terrible fall.

You may say: "This is impossible! America is too strong to fall like that!" Look back into history, my skeptical friend. See Rome at the height of her glory - then shudder as you see the barbarians sweep down on her from the north to pillage and burn. Look at mighty Babylon and see the finger of God as it writes on the king's wall in the midst of an orgy: "You have been weighed in the balances and have been found wanting!" Look at Assyria; at Egypt. Then remember this, when a nation turns its back on God, it is finished, no matter how powerful its armed forces, how long range its guided missiles, or how powerful it's warheads:

"For heathen host which puts its trust
In reeking tube and iron shard;
All valiant dust that builds on dust
And guarding calls not Thee to guard.
For frantic words, and foolish boasts,
Have mercy on Thy People, Lord!"

It is a proven fact that in sixty centuries of written history there have been twenty-one great civilizations; nineteen of these have been destroyed from within by moral and spiritual corruption. They destroyed themselves from within, long before the barbarians swarmed over the walls or battered down the gates. America will be no different - without God!

People, wake up to one awful truth. If America falls, the light of freedom will go out all over the world. If the torch of liberty is snuffed out in America, then the whole world will languish in slavery, will be thrown into darkness.

This battle we see going on today is not a battle between Republicans and Democrats. It is not even a political battle. It is not a battle between communism and democracy. It is a battle in the spiritual realm. Paul recognized this when he wrote in the Sixth Chapter of Ephesians: "Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles (trickery; propaganda) of the Devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places."

Our real foe in America is not communism - it is not atheism, it is not liberalism! Our real enemy is spiritual wickedness in leadership, both political and religious, and among those citizens who put them into office and let them stay in power. We could convince every American to be anti-communist and they would still end in Hell. What good is it to save America from communism and have Americans go into something infinitely worse, the torture and eternal bondage of Satan? Only Jesus Christ, occupying the throne of individual hearts, will turn the tide of wickedness in America and bring God's promised blessing. America's main problem is a heart that is festering through the corruption of sin.

I believe fully that God's answer to a "sin-sick" America - God's message for this "Mess-Age," is in the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I believe the Bible teaches that "born-again" Christians hold the key to the survival of this nation. I believe we have the only key which will change the course of destruction, will clean up the corruption which is belching forth like an erupting volcano and set America back on the path to safety and freedom. Legislation and education have their place in the scheme of things, but "regeneration" is the only hope in this tragic hour.

It frightens and saddens me to see many knowledgeable men and women, folks who can see the dangers of the International Communist conspiracy and how it is destroying freedom throughout the world, yet whose eyes are spiritually blinded so that they cannot or will not see how much more effective they would be with God on their side. Or possibly it would be more accurate to say: "With them on the side of God!"

The Gospel is the only power of this hour that will stand up. This is one time when Uncle Sam cannot allot a few billion dollars to some Bureau, or Government Office, and clean up the mess. We need to realize that Watergate is but the "tip of the iceberg" of what has been happening in America and that it isn't a job for politicians to clean up, it is a job which must be approached from a spiritual standpoint.

Thank God the future of America is not in the hands of the Kennedys, the Rockefeller's, the McGovern's, or the Nixons. America's future and the future of the entire world is in the hands of those who love God and honor His Word.

What we do with the message of Jesus Christ will determine the destiny of this old sin-sick world and will determine the survival of civilization.

There has never been a time in the history of America when "good news" would be more welcome than in 1974. Pick up your daily newspaper, turn on the news on your TV set - there seems to be nothing but frightening, shocking news. Fighting in the Near East and the Far East; stock markets going down, down, down; suicide rates going up, up, up; crime on the increase; inflation on the constant rise; graft and corruption in political officers; "lukewarmness" and lack of concern in the church. Some wag has said: "If the 10 o'clock news is good, Americans go to sleep; when it is bad, they go to pieces!" How true! But Jesus predicted these days would come when He said: "Men's hearts will fail them through fear, as they see these things come on the earth."

It is sad business when Christians fall into this "fearful category," for our Lord and Master has told us: "Be of good cheer, (in other words, don't be afraid) for I have overcome the world."

Herbert Philbrick, who became famous as a double-agent for the F.B.I. and who served for years in the Communist Party, told a Memphis news reporter a few years ago: "America has from ten to twelve years of freedom left." We know the Communist schedule for takeover of America has been set for July 4, 1976. They have never bothered to hide that.

But there have been few people in America who have been concerned enough to find out what is happening. Few Americans realize that most of the world's troubles are brought about through diabolical, well-calculated plans... they don't just happen through some "process of evolution." Yet, when you try and warn Americans, even "born-again" Christians, they get angry with you and seem to think you are some kind of "nut" to be avoided at all costs. Even Christian folks can't seem to see God's timetable of prophecy as it unfolds on the world.

Stars of the Morning

by "Aunt Carolyn"

A corner nook of hints and tidbits for folks who love boys and girls and want to win them to the Lord Jesus Christ.

A Still Small Voice

After the prophets of Baal had caused such frenzy and despair all day long, Elijah's figure loomed like a large silent silhouette against the evening horizon. With his arms lifted and his eyes raised toward heaven, he asked God to prove that He was the true and living God and that Elijah was His prophet. Like a lightning bolt, fire fell from heaven and consumed the sacrifice! There was no more doubt. The people knew that the Lord was God, and they fell on their faces before Him. Immediately the wicked prophets of Baal were killed, and the uncleanness and the sinfulness was wiped out. Then God sent the wonderful rain, the sweet, refreshing rain. After the famine and the drought, how wonderful God was to send blessing and relief. But Ahab went home and told Jezebel all the events of the day and with her wicked heart, she could see no blessing. She wasn't glad that her people weren't going to starve to death anymore; all she cared about was those wicked prophets of Baal and her false religion being put down. Jezebel was so angry she immediately sent a terrible threat on Elijah's life that he would be dead by tomorrow at that time! Poor Elijah, who had just seemed to burn his life out for the Lord, who had worked so hard the day before standing against the prophets of Baal, who had run all the way to Jezreel before Ahab to warn Him of the rain, now after all the good he had done, had a threat on his life. Fear struck his heart, and he started to run. He went a whole day's journey to Beer-sheba and left his servant there. When he went on out into the wilderness, he was so exhausted he fell down under a Juniper tree and he said, "O Lord, just let me die." You talk about tired and discouraged, he was! He just felt like there was no use to fight it any longer. He said, "Lord, just take my life away." But as he lay there and slept, an angel woke him up. And did you know that in a wonderful way God sent a cake of bread for him to eat and a cruse of water for him to drink. He was so exhausted he didn't even say, "Thank you Lord," he just fell back to sleep. And in a little while God's angel woke him and fed him again, and he went for forty days in the strength of that food. He ran for his life all the way to Mount Horeb, which was way on the opposite end of the country. But when he got there he was still fearful and found a cave in the mountain and hid, afraid to stick his head out. And as he was there in the cave one day he heard God's voice. God said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" Elijah had been so close to the Lord and talked to God so often that he was accustomed to His voice. When he heard the voice of God, it didn't frighten him, he was calm and ready to answer. Elijah said, "Well, Lord, I have just worked for You; I have fought for you when everybody else turned against You. The people turned against You and served false gods, and now they have a manhunt out for me to kill me! I am the only one left, and I am just ready to give up, Lord." God said, "Elijah, go out and stand in front on the mountain." And as Elijah obeyed, suddenly a terrible wind came through the mountain and made the rocks fall, the trees break, and it was a terrible wind storm. But the Bible says God wasn't in all that racket and force of the wind. And Elijah waited again. The mountain began to quake and tremble. Giant cracks opened, and rocks rolled down the mountain with a terrible roar and crash. Elijah stood and listened, but he didn't hear God's voice, because God was not in the earthquake. And then, even more frightening than all, a terrible fire broke out, licking up everything in its path. Oh, it was a terrible show of force and power, but God was not in it to speak to Elijah. But afterward—in the stillness—, there came a still, small voice. Elijah recognized that Voice in the quietness. It didn't take all kinds of commotion for God to speak to His servant. God wanted to still Elijah's heart and speak to him in quietness, and Elijah went out to listen. Once more, God said, "Elijah, what are you doing here?" And Elijah said, "Well, Lord you know the whole story. Everybody has turned against You. I have fought for You, and I am the only one left." Elijah was still very discouraged. You would have thought God would have said, "Oh, dear Elijah, poor thing, you have been so faithful, I am so sorry for you." No! Do you know what God did? He didn't give Elijah one word of sympathy. All He did was give him new orders for the job and courage for the task. Say, you might feel low, you might get discouraged if you're standing faithful for God, but God will give you courage. God will give you strength, but He will not baby you, no sir! You have His Word to study—just like Elijah. The Word of the Lord came to him. That is what you need, if you are discouraged, Christian. Get your Bible down, get busy reading the Word. Get alone with the Lord in prayer, and God will give you the encouragement you need. He will not pat you on the back or baby you, but He will lift you up like Elijah. He said, "Elijah, I've got a job for you to do. I'll give you the courage, the strength and the help you need. Now, get out of this mountain cave and go down and anoint Hazeel to be king over Syria. Get Jehu and anoint him king of Israel, and then I want you to go down and get Elisha to be your helper so he can learn how to carry on My work after you are gone. Now, Elijah, get moving. And one more thing, don't get so down in the mouth feeling lonely and sorry for yourself because I still have 7,000 people who are still faithful and haven't bowed the knee to Baal." Elijah got the message. God didn't have to tell him twice. Elijah got his belongings together and started down that mountain with new purpose in life. He went directly and called Elisha, anointed those other kings, denounced sin, and did great, mighty miracles for God. In fact, he was so busy tending to God's business that he didn't even have to die. One day God just took him home to Heaven in a chariot of fire. Some transportation! God surely wasn't having an energy crisis! Say, boys and girls, you can do great things for God. First, you must receive the Lord Jesus Christ as your Savior and have your sins forgiven through His blood. Then you must get moving. Don't wait for pats on the back and sympathy. Get into God's Word. Read the Bible every day. Then ask God for courage and strength to stand up for Him, to witness for Him and do all that He wants you to do.

Blueprint For The Anti-Christ

The ultimate end of this Satanic plot is to bring all men into slavery. It is not a new plot, for Satan has been striving with "might and main" to accomplish this for centuries. But now, as his end draws closer and closer, we can expect him to work with increasing, diabolical energy to accomplish his task of destroying man - God's crowning handiwork.

An inkling of this plan can be found in a curious document which has caused a great furor in liberal and communist circles. This document, titled: RULES FOR BRINGING ABOUT REVOLUTION! was purportedly seized in a raid on Communist headquarters in Dusseldorf, Germany in 1918. Whether this document was actually seized from the communists or not is beside the point, for we can see in it a plan for Satanic operation in the United States, which is being meticulously followed point by point.

Here are the points of this alleged document:

b. Get control of all means of publication and thereby:

1. Get people's minds off their government by focusing their attention on atheistics, sexy books and plays, and other trivialities.

2. Divide the people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters of no importance.

3. Destroy the people's faith in their natural leaders by holding these up to ridicule and contempt.

4. Always preach true democracy, but seize power as fast and as ruthlessly as possible.

5. By encouraging government extravagance, destroy its credit, produce fear of inflation with rising prices and general discontent.

6. Foment unnecessary strikes in vital industries, encourage civil disorders and foster a soft and lenient attitude on the part of government towards such disorders.

c. Cause registration of all firearms on some pretext, with a view of confiscating them and leaving the population helpless.

If you can't see how these plans have been carefully carried out, you are either extremely foolish or blind. This campaign against God has been carried out in all countries under communist control. The State is supreme, and God can only exist when He becomes subservient to the State. This same program is being vigorously pushed in the United States. So-called Christian leaders have piously proclaimed that "God is dead!" This idea, in itself, is as foolish as a group of ants organizing on a railroad track to prove there is no train. For man to say there is no God or that He is dead, is sheer intellectual stupidity, for man's very existence proves there is a God.

In Psalm 14:1, the Bible tells us: "The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God." Notice that the "fool" does not believe "there is no God," but he sets out to try and make himself believe a lie - that God does not exist. Atheists are not born that way. It is as natural as breathing, for a small child to believe in God. In order for a person to become an atheist, they must educate themselves into believing the "sheer stupidity" that God does not exist. The intellectual's trouble is not so much "head trouble," as it is "heart trouble." The intellectual knows that he is a sinner, but he doesn't want to admit it - so he sets out to prove to himself and any other fool who is willing to listen to him that God does not exist. The only thing that can adequately deal with "intellectual heart trouble" is a good dose of the "old time religion" that will change his heart. This was what caused the Jewish intellectual, Paul, to say in Ephesians 4:18 - "Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart."

Preachers these days have often won popularity, not because of what they believe, but because of what they don't believe. They become famous by "bad-mouthing" the Bible; they become famous when they sneeringly state that Jesus was not really the Virgin born Son of God. These "wolves in sheep's clothing," are puffing themselves up into being something they really aren't, experts on what God thinks. They are the same ones that Peter blasted in 2 Peter 2:17, 18, when he said: "These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest...For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh..."

These "intellectual idiots" are making headlines in the religious news by advocating "free love," and "illicit sex." I had a first hand experience with one of these fellows in 1969. I had been asked to speak as part of a "teach-in" at a Catholic girls' college in Patterson, New Jersey. I was one of fourteen speakers and all you had to do to know that I was the only conservative was to look at the others. I was the thirteenth speaker to address the young people that day and all during my talk, I was harassed by a tall, handsome young man dressed in clerical garb who was sitting on the front seat. He kept interrupting me, using some language I had never heard used by the clergy before. Finally, when I finished, he was introduced as the last speaker. He was Dr. David Hunter, Secretary-General of the National Council of Churches, of our New York City. He began a rambling dissertation about the immorality of the war in Vietnam. After a few minutes I interrupted him, and turning to the audience I said: "For five hours today, I have listened to you young people say how you detest hypocrites, especially adult hypocrites. If this is true, why have you invited this one to speak to you?" And I pointed my finger at Dr. Hunter. Of course he was upset and wanted to know why I had called him a hypocrite. I pointed to the lapels of his suit. On one was a button that said:

"Legalize pot!" On the other a button that stated: "Free Love!" I said: "No wonder this country is going to hell, when we can't even trust our religious leaders any more."

There is absolutely no doubt in my mind that the modernism and liberalism we see being spouted from many American pulpits has become the breeding grounds for atheism and communism. We would have very few of these problems if the Word of God were being preached in all its strength and purity from our pulpits.

The second chain of slavery in the Communist-anti-christ plan to destroy us is that of getting young people's minds off God and saturated with "sex."

Sex in recent years has become a "dirty word" to many. There is nothing wrong with "sex" in itself. It is one of the most wonderful gifts God has given humanity. But America's idea of sex has been so distorted by Hollywood, the theater, television, and contemporary literature, until "sex" has become "unbridled lust," worse than anything practiced by the dumb animals.

A year or two ago, while engaged in an intensive lecture campaign on Sex Education in the Public School, I came across a statement during my research, made by one of America's outstanding educators. He said in essence: "Nations have the choice of either practicing sexual freedom or sexual discipline. History proves, without the shadow of a doubt, that a nation cannot have both sexual freedom and great progress. A great nation becomes great by exercising sexual discipline." That's rather contradictory to what a lot of ministers and educators are telling our young folks these days.

Not only has there been a deliberate attempt to pervert sex in America, but our youth have been given a "twisted view" of sex. America is doing exactly what was planned for her; falling into the Devil's trap, until like animals who come running at the master's whistle, we have been conditioned into doing evil, and another link has been forged into the chain which binds us to our evil master.

Point "B" in the Plans for Revolution, states that people's minds should be taken off government, focusing them instead on athletics, sexy books, plays and other trivial things. This is not a new approach to dictatorship, for it was used in turning Rome from a Republic to a complete dictatorship.

Now I have no argument with most sports. I'm a sports fan myself. I especially like football, baseball and fishing. But it appears to me that America has gone "overboard" on sports. Many of our great universities have built their schedules around sports instead of quality education. The stadiums can't be built big enough and fast enough to take care of the swarms of folks who flock to see the games. Americans spend untoiled billions of dollars each year on sports and our athletes are among the highest paid strata of American society.

People will drive hundreds of miles and sit outside in freezing rain and snow, on hard seats, paying premium prices to watch two groups of grown men pound the daylights out of each other. They will sit there and freeze or burn in the blistering sun for three or four hours, yelling like idiots when their team does something they agree with. Yet many of these same people would never bother to darken the doors of a church, and when they do come, they demand air-conditioning, plush seats, and a "sugar coated" sermonette that won't last longer than thirty minutes, no matter how important it may be. If the preacher goes over twelve o'clock on a Sunday morning, some of them will get up and leave, and there's no doubt they go home and have "roast preacher" for dinner that day.

Unfortunately, most folks these days want "cafeteria style" preaching, where they can pick out the things they like and discard anything that "gets too close home."

It's a shame, but most American's know more about TV or sports than they do about God's Word. There are any number of so-called Christian women who can tell you every member of the cast on "Hospital Report" or "Edge of Darkness" but who think Dan and Bersheeba are husband and wife, like Sodom and Gomorrah! No wonder America is headed for hell in a handbasket. We've been putting our priority on the wrong things. Jesus once said: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, then all these other things will be added unto you." How true I've found that to be. What we need to realize is the importance of giving things proper priority in our lives, "Putting first things first!"

The Bible clearly warns us in 2 Timothy 3:4: "This know also that in the last days, perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of pleasure, more than lovers of God." Beloved those days are here, right now! But Satan has blinded the minds of most church folks, so that we won't see and understand that this is all part of the plan to enslave us.

The "Peace and Liberty" newspaper (France's Communist paper) said: "One thing in America we are afraid of. We are not afraid of your bombs, or your bullets, or your men. But we are afraid of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. But we really aren't afraid of it, because we are not afraid of the people who have it. We don't believe they will use it. We don't think they will soil their hands. We believe they are too intoxicated with pleasure and too bent on entertainment to take the time and effort to spread Christ's message."

What a stinging "slap in the face" for those of us who say we "love the Lord." It hurts

Day-Care

When I was a little boy
 ..a few years old,
 My daddy went and left me
 ..I've been told.
 My mother came and got me
 ..to save my soul;
 My mother didn't scold me
 ..I've been told.
 They put me in a school there
 ..to save my soul;
 To learn the golden rule there.
 ..I've been told.
 I learned my lesson
 ..to save my soul
 Now wasn't that a blessing
 ..I've been told.

The above poetry is not a brief autobiography. It is not a true story (to my knowledge); however, you may have someone in mind as you read the words which I took from a children's record which is recommended by the producer for pre-school children. These words, accompanied by a background of "ha ha, this-a-way, ha ha, that-a-way" and a soft rock beat, will indoctrinate your pre-schooler if he or she listens long enough.

Little children love records and record players! I am not a child psychologist so I won't try to analyze why this is true. I just know that my kids love records and the kids in the nursery at our school love records. People buy records for their children and the market seems to be growing by leaps and bounds.

The big problem today seems to be with our teenagers and their rock music, and I am beginning to realize that the problem with the teens may be eliminated to a great extent if the toddlers learned to appreciate good music.

A few years ago my children were given about fifty records and a used record player. Many of the records had familiar titles, and at first I considered the gift to be a real blessing. A few days later my four year old son was singing, "Puff The Magic Dragon," (or if you prefer "puff the magic-drag in"). I quickly realized that it was time for "record check." We disposed of several records by simply labeling one stack "good music" and the other stack "trashy music." A year later my son tells me that we missed a few on our record check. I played the alleged "trashy record" and sure enough - he was right.

Not long ago our local radio station changed its format from easy listening and sacred music to country, rock and gospel rock. When I neglected to turn the radio off after listening to the news, I heard about it from my five and eight year old children.

My interest in the music of pre-school children has been aroused by the current legislation or proposed legislation in our state to create state approved day care centers. Of course a state approved center will have to meet certain minimum standards and upon meeting these requirements, state or federal aid will be forthcoming.

Government aid to private business is also government control of private business. This constitutes plunder and socialism which would be reason enough for opposing such legislation. The worst thing about this state control however is what will be allowed by the state as curriculum in these approved day care centers. The opening verses of this article would undoubtedly be acceptable while Bible stories would obviously be offensive.

There is a possibility that Christian day care centers will eventually become state regulated if Christians don't actively work to defeat such legislation. We are already in competition with the "free" public schools and every state except Florida is in competition with tax supported day-care centers. When Christian schools or day-care centers seek state approval they are asking for state control. Don't fall into the trap of apologizing for not being a state approved institution. The state is not God!

Blueprint For The Anti-Christ

even more, because I know it is true. There are millions of church members in America who are Christian in name only. They don't want to dirty their hands or give up their "good times" to spread God's Word. And in the meantime, America is hurtling towards Hell with a speed that makes the fastest jet plane look like a turtle by comparison.

Many church members think they are doing God a favor if they show up and warm a pew for an hour each Sunday morning and dump some silver in the offering plate or mumble a prayer before they "stuff their face" at the table. Because the zeal of Communism has outstripped that of Christianity, they are winning a hundred converts for every one we are winning to Jesus Christ.

"Life Magazine" said that the celebrated atheist, Madlyn Murray O'Hair, has five thousand people who send her a dollar each month to wage her war against God. She has quite a few in the hundred, five hundred category too. She made the statement: "I am living for the day when I can walk down the street of any American city and not see a trace of religion." Now I don't believe Mrs. O'Hair is a Communist, but she's playing right into their hands. Listen to the similarity of what she said to a statement made by Gus Hall, Secretary of the American Communist Party and a man who ran for President during the 1972 election. "I will live to see the day when the last Congressman is strangled with the guts of the last preacher. Those Christians say they want blood in their religion, so we will give them all the blood they can stand. We will cut their children's throats and drag their bodies over the alters of their churches, and may the parents strangle in the blood of their own children." May I remind you apathetic Christians that Mr. Hall is not a Russian or a Chinese. He is an American predicting what will happen to you when Anti-Christ reigns and everything you love and revere is destroyed.

I don't have time to go into the other aspects of the Revolutionary Plans, except to barely mention them. It should be apparent to any intelligent, observant American that there have been many deliberately created problems in recent years in our government. The solution has always first been suggested, then provided by the Federal Bureaucracy. As each solution has been provided, a new government department or bureau has been set up, each one taking over more and more authority in the area formerly controlled by local government and the state.

Using these clever ruses, the government, whether Republican or Democrat, has set class against class; labor against capital; rich against poor; the farmer against the city dweller. Each group blames the other for their problems and each has been led by the Federal bureaucracy into a Federal solution which has provided subsidies and regulations for the farmers; labor laws and regulation for labor; banking laws and regulation for Commerce, until the entire nation is now groaning under the oppressive yoke of a "Welfare State."

In Watergate we can see the insidious plan to destroy our faith in the job of President by holding Mr. Nixon up to ridicule and contempt. I hold no brief for Mr. Nixon, but I believe the vicious attack we see against him is aimed at the job of President, rather than the individual.

We have the word "democracy" crammed down our throats by schools, church and news media. May I point out to you something that should be obvious. We are not a "democracy" in America we are a Constitutional Republic, and there is a great deal of difference in these two forms of government. But we have been "brainwashed" in "Liberal Detergent" until we believe the "Tommy-rot" that is being spread around. (In case you don't know what "Liberal Detergent" is, it is a mind-washing solution made of an "ounce of truth dissolved in a gallon of hogwash".)

We can easily see the government spending that is bankrupting us through the use of Keynesian Economics, is the idea that you can have prosperity by spending more than you earn. Any fifth grader with an allowance knows this is ridiculous. Because of this Socialistic spending program, we are on the edge of bad inflation, which will lead to depression and general unrest.

We have already mentioned the drive to break down the old moral virtues. We know that honesty in government is something from the past; that America is becoming a nation of alcoholics; that continence is a "thing of the past" for many; that the pledged word is scoffed at as "horse and buggy;" and that the ruggedness of America's youth is being challenged even through such innocent appearing things as fashions and music.

Of course, those of you who have followed national news know of repeated attempts to register firearms and disarm the American people.

There is a vitally necessary stage of action for those of us who profess Christ. We must redouble and retriuple our efforts; we must re-concentrate our energies, gird up our loins for a terrible "no-quarter" battle against the forces of spiritual darkness. If we lose, we lose all!

You and I have not been commissioned to save America. We have not been commissioned to save souls and preserve freedom. Our job is to be Ambassadors for the Heavenly Kingdom of Jesus Christ. Now don't get excited - hold on a minute until I finish. I can see the "blood-pressure" of some rising already. We are not commissioned to save men.

Men are saved under the wooing of the Holy Spirit. We are commissioned to take the "good news" of salvation to "all men" everywhere. Would to God we could understand that in witnessing and taking a stand against evil (and Christ commissioned us to fight evil, every bit as much as He commissioned us to "preach the Gospel"), if we would realize that in doing what Christ commands us, we could save our freedom, maybe, just maybe, more of us would get on fire for Jesus Christ. The reason we are becoming pawns of the Anti-Christ in America, especially, is because we who call ourselves Christian have failed in our commission to be "the salt of the earth." Jesus said: "If the salt has lost its savor (its ability to act as salt), it is good for nothing but the garbage heap."

The story is told about David Livingston, the Englishman who gave his life to preach the Gospel in Africa. When he died, a grateful England brought him home to be buried in Westminster Abbey. Thousands of people filed weeping past his casket. One grey-haired man seemed to be weeping unconsolably. A stranger left the procession to place his hand on the old man's shoulder. "Why are you weeping?" he asked. "Dr. Livingston was a man of God, you need not worry about him." The old man lifted his tear stained face and spoke: "Mister, I'm not weeping for David! You see, he and I grew up together. We went to the same school. We were close friends. When we got out of school, I said, 'David, let's combine our talents, our money, and our energy and go into business together. Soon we'll be rich and respected and famous.' But he said, 'No, I'm going to Africa to tell the people about Jesus.' I pleaded with him, but to no avail, he just wouldn't listen. I stayed here. I made a lot of money. Now life's day is over for him and soon I will reach the end of my life. Today, at his funeral, I saw thousands of folks weep as they passed his casket. All the world loves him. Now for the first time I realize I placed my emphasis on the wrong things; I placed my emphasis on the wrong world."

Tell me, my friend, are you making the same mistake? Tell me, lady, what world are you living for? Are you interested in self and pleasure more than you are in God? Tell me businessman where have you placed your emphasis? Are you more interested in fame and fortune and power than you are in the things of God? Tell me, young person, where have you placed your emphasis? Do you care more for pleasure and fun and excitement than you do God? Are you more interested in "doing your thing" than in living for Jesus? The Word of God tells us: "For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?"

Where are "your priorities today? What will you say to God, when you stand before Him and He asks what you have done with your life?

The net of the Anti-Christ is closing on America. Listen to me, as you face eternity. Only one life to live, only one life to give! You do only go around once in this life...what will you do with it? Will you make it count for God?

There is only one Formula for Survival that America can use. It is found in 2 Chronicles 7:14: "If my people, which are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sins, and WILL HEAL THEIR LAND!"

Look to your heart America, "let go and let God have His way with you!"
