Possible Pitfalls For Christian Schools

by Dr. Dayton Hobbs

We live in a day of compromise and confusion. There are so many subtle ways in which Satan attacks the work of God. The Scripture warns us not to be "ignorant of his devices." We are instructed to be "wise as serpents and harmless as doves." There are pitfalls ahead for the Christian school movement. Satan is not going to sit idly by and not put up a fight. He will do everything in his power to keep Christian schools from coming into existence and once they are begun he will make every effort to divert them from God's purpose for them. This will come about by attempting to draw the Christian School down one of a number of side roads that leads to ineffectiveness and compromise of purpose.

One thing we need to remember is that there are no short-cuts in this business. If we expect to accomplish the desired results in the lives of our students we must be willing to fight for each inch of ground we take from Satan.

The Devil desires to control the lives of the young folks in our schools and every victory we win will cost dearly. The higher the goals are that we have set for ourselves, our school, and our students, the hotter the battle will rage. This is no place for the fearful and fainthearted; it is best that they return to their places of rest and security before the battle begins, else they will desert in the heat of battle and weaken our forces. Remember, "You and God make a majority..." (Dr. Bob Jones, Sr.). The Christian life is described in Scripture as a warfare; the conflict for the lives of our youth is where the flesh is thickest.

Let us explore some of the possible pitfalls we must watch out for.

DESIRE FOR ACCEPTANCE BY THE WORLD

If we do our job properly, the world will possibly respect us, but it will not accept us. Our standards, our discipline, our rules and the fervent teaching of the principals of the Word of God will ostracize the world from us. The unsaved may send us their students and they may appreciate our excellence, but we will be hated by the enemies of Christ. Settle this to begin with: Please God, not man!! We do not need man; we need God and His power and blessing. The Lord will send us friends along the way, even from the ranks of the unsaved, but we must not seek these or cut corners to please them.

COMPROMISE OF STANDARDS TO GET OR KEEP STUDENTS

The Christian School is not for everybody and we shouldn't try to be. It should take some degree of character to attend our schools, especially at the junior and senior high school level. If the public school students do not call your school "kooky," "funny," old-fashioned, or something of the like, it is very likely because you are none of these, and you ought to be. If in these days of short skirts for girls and long hair for boys you are not different, it would be better if you closed your doors or dropped the word Christian from your school's name. Our standards of conduct, dress, and hair should serve to eliminate the undesirable students and give us a much better product at graduation time. We want, need, and must have students or we have no need to exist, but we want the students the Lord want us to train for Him. No school likes to lose students and our heart is grieved when they leave us, but we must not compromise our standards in order to keep them.

DESIRE FOR ACCREDITATION

As long as the product we turn out from our schools can produce, we don't have anything to be concerned about. In some states there may be certain legal requirements of the state that are required of Christian schools; these, of course, must be met. My policy is to go ahead and do the job and let them inform me if there is something they require. Don't fill out unnecessary forms or forms not required by law. Accreditation is just a word, quite often with very little meaning or at best of confused meaning. Don't seek it. Just go about your business faithfully, and you'll do all right. Colleges and universities today go more on the basis of the ability of the individual student as shown on the score of the state and national testing programs than they do the accreditation or non-accreditation of the school the student graduates from. They are looking for performance, and that is the

The Anti-Christ

By Evangelist Ron Comfort

The setting for Revelation, Chapter 13 takes place midway in the Tribulation Period, that great time of trouble when all hell breaks loose on earth, that seven year period which will take place after those of us who are saved meet the Lord Jesus Christ in the air at the Rapture.

HIS DESCRIPTION

In Revelation, Chapter 12, there is a woe pronounced on the earth. The woe is pronounced, because the devil is cast out of the world and is told that he has no more access to God and to His Throne. The woe is pronounced on the earth because of the terrible judgments that are about to take place. Now, as we come to Chapter 13, the first thing we must conclude is that this beast out of the sea is a man. There are eighteen masculine pronouns used in reference to this beast out of the sea. This beast is called "he", "him", "his", over and over again. I am aware that there are many Bible scholars who have more knowledge in their little fingers than I will ever have in my entire mind who believe that this first beast out of the sea is the revived Roman Empire, the last form of government in the tribulation. Now, I do not believe that, because the Bible says that all the world falls down and worships this beast. The world has never fallen down and worshipped a government. If it has fallen down and worshipped, it was a man who epitomized that government; such as Rome with its Caesars; Russia with its

Czars; Germany with its Kaisers; Red China with its Maos. The clencher is in verse 18, which says that the number of the beast is the number of a man. It is talking about the first beast. It says that his number is 666. Now, it is interesting to notice that six times in the passage I have read to you it says that power is given to this beast. This beast is nothing, he has nothing, apart from what is given to him from Satan himself. He is a Satanically energized superman. Now the number Six is the number of man. Man was created on the sixth day. The number Seven is the number of God, the number of perfection. Everything man does falls short of perfection. It comes up "six" or failure. Everything God does comes up "seven" or perfection. It is also interesting to notice that in the Old Testament there are eighteen pictures of Anti-Christ. The number Six or its combinations have to do with failure or evil, and in this passage we have a

Another school year has come to a close. The 1972-73 school year has been one of tremendous growth in the Christian school movement. Hundreds of new schools were begun and most of those already in operation grew in attendance. The 1973-74 school year looks even brighter for the growth of Christian schools. I believe God is giving us the opportunity in these last days to salvage a remnant of our youth from the apostasy of the Government schools. We certainly must not fail. Pray for and support the Christian school in your area. If there is not one, gather interested parents and begin to pray for one to be established. It can be accomplished even in small towns and churches. Don't look for an easy way; look for the right way. Avoid educational schemes such as A.C.E. Get advice and help from someone who has a successful conventional type school already in operation. Visit as many schools as possible. It is my understanding that the American Association of Christian Schools will be coming out shortly with a plan for having a traditional Christian school in a small church or community. I have not reviewed the program but THE PROJECTOR will run a full evaluation of the program when it becomes available.

A letter came to my desk recently from a principal who at one time was associated with an A.C.E. school. He is now working with a traditional classroom type school. He informed me that the A.C.E. people are giving out information that Bob Jones University now endorses their A.C.E. program. This is false information; Bob Jones University does not endorse the A.C.E. program. A letter to Dr. Walter Fremont, Dean of the School of Education, will verify this.

The A.C.E. program, I predict, will do untold harm to the cause of Christian education. The philosophy and methods are not based on Bible principles. It is a short-cut method that cuts out most of what Christian education is all about. Pastors and principals, be sure to get both sides of the story before signing a three-year contract that obligates you to A.C.E.

Possible Pitfalls

direction in which accreditation standards have turned in recent years. The emphasis today is not so much on the plant or even the degrees of the faculty, but on the performance of the product. This is very good as far as we in Christian education are concerned, because we should have a superior product.

THE USE OF METHODS THAT ARE NOT CHRISTIAN

One of the most subtle attacks of Satan is through teaching methods. Recently I spoke with the President of a small Christian college who told me that they were unable to afford a full faculty in the Education Department, and so they gave the students the content and farmed them out to a state university for their methods courses. It is ideal, of course, for a Christian college to teach its education students both the content and the methods courses, but if I had to make the choice of the state university teaching one or the other, I would let them teach "content" and I would teach "methods." The one who designs the methods will be able to unconsciously insert his philosophy into the hearts and lives of the pupils as well as the teachers who teach them. Most Christian teachers would not purposely use methods that are humanistic and built upon a child-centered philosophy, but quite often they do so without realizing it. Methods reflect the philosophy of those who design them. The methods of an educator who believes that the child is not a sinner will not have discipline and order built into his methods. His methods will allow the child maximum liberty to choose for himself what he wants to learn and will let the child go about that learning in the way and at the speed he chooses. The emphasis of such methods will be upon discovery rather than the teaching of facts. A great deal of time will be spent with the study of "helpers", "neighbors", and the culture of the peoples of the world instead of Reading by Phonics, Mathematics (including the memorization of the multiplication tables) and excellence in Penmanship. Be sure of this: the methods of the progressive state-operated schools of our day reflect the basic concept held by those educators that the child is basically good; therefore, his choices and decisions will be right for him. Be sure you use methods that are proven and tried. Don't get caught up in the progressive web.

These are a few of the pitfalls facing Christian schools today. There are very likely other snares of which to be aware, and new ones will be coming on the scene in the days ahead. We must be vigilant lest they creep into our Christian schools and make us ineffective in the vital job we have been given of training the youth in our care, so that they will be prepared to stand in their generation if our Lord tarries His coming.

The Anti-Christ

triad of sixes which equal eighteen. In verse 1, we have the beast out of the sea, which is Anti-Christ. In verse 2, we have the dragon, which is Satan. Then in verse 11, we have the beast out of the earth, and we have the unholy trinity.

Now, it is also interesting to notice that in the Old Testament there are not eighteen pictures of Jesus Christ, but there are twenty-one pictures of Jesus Christ. The number of seven or its combinations has to do with perfection -- The Triune, God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit -- perfection.

HIS DESCRIPTION

In Revelation 13, let's notice several things about this beast. In Verse 1, the Bible says he comes up out of the sea. In the Bible the sea is a picture of the raging nations. When the nations are in political turmoil, out of the nations comes a Satanical superman, and it is none other than Jesus Christ Superstar, if you please. It is not Jesus Christ, the Son of God. It is an imitation of the Son of God or Jesus Christ Superstar. The description says he has seven heads and ten horns. Turn in your Bible to Revelation 17. It says the seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sitteth. Now everyone knows that is Rome. The Bible teaches that in the Tribulation, the political capital of the world will be the City of Rome. Verse 10 says, "There are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space." Now in these seven kingdoms, I believe we have all the worlds of the past, the present, and the future. He says five are fallen. What are they? One was the Egyptian Empire, which was replaced by the Assyrian, which was replaced by the Babylonian, which was replaced by the Neo-Persian, which was replaced by the Grecian Empire. Now those five world empires ceased to be -- five are fallen. He says, "One is". What is that? During the Book of Revelation, the government of Rome was in power. He says that one is not yet come, and I believe that one that is yet to come is the revived Roman Empire, the form of government in the Tribulation Period.

In the next verse, it says that there is an eighth who comes out of the seven who is of the seven. I believe the eighth is the Anti-Christ himself. What does it mean when it says he is "of the seven"? Rev. 13:2 says that this beast, the Anti-Christ, is likened to a leopard. He has feet like a bear and a mouth like a lamb. In the Book of Daniel, the various world empires were pictured as to various animals of the forest. The leopard pictures Alexander the Great in the Grecian Empire and all his swiftness. Then there was the Neo-Persian Empire, which came in and strongly subdued the Babylonian empire, and the Neo-Persian was pictured by the bear. The Babylonian empire was pictured by the lion; the lion being the king of the jungle and the Babylonian empire being the most splendid empire of all times. So the Bible teaches that this Anti-Christ will be all the seven. In other words, he will have all the outstanding characteristics of every world government that has preceded him. He will be the most magnetic, charismatic individual that ever set foot on the face of the earth.

Now, let's notice what the ten horns are. Re. 17:12 says, "The ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings" or kingdoms. So the Bible teaches that in the Tribulation Period, there will be ten major world powers. Today things are happening so fast that as you read your Bible and read your newspaper, it almost makes your head spin.

Isn't it interesting to notice that the Common Market of Europe recently included three more nations, so that now there are nine nations in the Common Market of Europe? Originally there were supposed to be ten, but Norway dropped out. Now, if the Common Market of Europe is these ten world powers, then, my friend, the tenth one could be added before this year is out. It could be added at any time. There are many Bible scholars who believe that the Common Market of Europe represents the ten world kingdoms or ten world powers. If that is not so, here is another thought. Do you know that there are exactly ten nations today that are recognized as major powers?

Daniel 7:8 calls the Anti-Christ "the little horn". Daniel 8:23 calls him "The king of fierce countenance", and Daniel 9:26 calls him "the prince that shall come". Daniel 11:36 calls him "the willful king". In II Thess. 2:3, it calls him "The man of sin and the son of perdition", and II Thess. 2:11 calls him "The lie". In Rev. 9:11, it calls him the "King of the bottomless pit". That is the description of the beast.

HIS DURATION

Now notice the duration of the beast. How long will his kingdom last? Rev. 13:5 says, "and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months" or exactly three-and-a-half years. Now, according to II Thess. 2:3, Anti-Christ will he revealed after the Church of Jesus Christ is raptured. Daniel 9:26 says that after the Anti-Christ is revealed, he will befriend the Jewish nation; he will confirm a covenant with the Jews for seven years. It does not say he is going to MAKE a covenant; it says he is going to CONFIRM a covenant. The covenant has already been made. It was the Abrahamic Covenant, which has to do with two things -- the Jews and the land of Palestine. So the Abrahamic covenant in essence is that one day the Jews will dwell in Palestine as a nation. All of them will dwell there in peace, not bothered by their surrounding enemies or nations.

I believe the first three-and-one-half years the Anti-Christ is coming as the white dove of peace, trying to build himself a kingdom. Daniel 11:21, 23, 24 says, "And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom; but he shall come in peaceably, and shall obtain the kingdom by flatteries. And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people. He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province." The key phrase is, "He shall come in peaceably." Rev. 1 & 2 teaches that Anti-Christ is coming as the white dove of peace imitating the rider on the white horse of Rev. 19. In Rev. 6:1-2 it says, "And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. And I saw, and behold a white horse; and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him; and he went forth conquering, and to conquer." The Bible says he has a bow, but it does not say he has an arrow. Why? -- Because the Anti-Christ's victory will be a bloodless victory. It will look like he went in and won a victory, but he will win his victory around the negotiating table. We are already entering into that era where it seems that battles are not fought on battlefields, but rather around the negotiating table. The Bible says the crown is given him. It does not say that he wins a crown, but that it is willingly given to him.

In the first three-and-a-half years we have religious toleration, and according to Rev. 9:17, during those years 144,000 Jews, not Jehovah Witnesses, will be saved. These 144,000 Jews are going to go out with the Gospel of the Kingdom. Matthew 24:14 says, "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." I believe the 144,000 Jewish evangelists will cross the world and go to the caves and crevices of primitive people who have never heard the Word of God. Do you know that there are over one thousand tribes that have never had the Bible translated into their language? I believe it is this type of people that these Jewish evangelists will win to the Lord Jesus Christ. The Bible says there will be a multitude which no man could number, and the message of the Jews will be, "Get right with God; the King is coming. Get right with God; the King is coming."

The Bible teaches that in the middle of that seven year covenant with the Jews, the covenant will be broken, and at that time religious toleration will cease. II Thess. 2:4 says that Anti-Christ will oppose himself against all that is called God or is worshipped, "so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God." In the last three-and-a-half years, no one will be able to worship any other God, save the Anti-Christ. If a man does not bow down and worship the Anti-Christ he will pay with his life unless he is protected with the miraculous hand of God in the wilderness somewhere. In the last three-and-a-half years will take place what Jesus described in Matthew 24:21-22: "For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And Except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened." There is no way to put in human vocabulary the description of that time. There has never been and never will be a holocaust like it. Rev. 6:15-17: "And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?"

HIS DOMINION

Let's go on. We have noticed the description of the beast, the duration of the beast, now let's see about the dominion of the beast. Rev. 13:3: "And all the world wondered after the beast". Verse 8: "And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him". Verse 12: "And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast."

So, he will have world-wide dominion. The eminent historian, Arnold Toynbee, has said, "The nations are now ready to give the kingdom of the world to any one man who will give us a solution to our world problems". Isn't that a tremendous statement? He was saying that the world is ready to enthrone the Anti-Christ, and I believe that with all my heart.

A WORLD GOVERNMENT

His world-wide dominion will encompass three things: 1. A World Government, 2. A World Church, and 3. A World Market.

Number 1, A world government. Rev. 17:13 says that the ten kings have one mind and shall give their power and strength to the beast. The ten kings or kingdoms have one mind. That sounds like a conspiracy to give the kingdoms of the world to one man, and I believe such a conspiracy has been going on since 1776. Everywhere I go people are pitted against people.

If you have a dollar in your pocket, take it out. I think there is something interesting about that dollar you would like to know. On one side you have the U.S. Seal. On the other side, you have the "Great Seal". That is interesting. Why is the U.S. Seal not the "Great Seal"? Do you know what the Great Seal is? Do you know what that pyramid pictures? It pictures a one-world government. Above that pyramid you have the all-seeing Masonic eye, representing the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Underneath the Great Seal you have in Roman Numerals, 1776. You say, "That is the Declaration of Independence". Wrong. If that were the Declaration of Independence, it would be under the U.S. Seal, and not under the Great Seal. Do you know what that "1776" is? My friend, on May 1, 1776, a group was formed called "The Illuminati", who had as their goal the bringing about of the one-world government.

In America there is a group called C. F. R., The Council of Foreign Relations. It is the most powerful organization in America, yet the papers do not talk about it. They don't talk about it, because no president who sits in the White House

U. of Satan ??

In the May, 1973 edition of AMERICAN OPINION, Gary Allen mentions the possibility of parents sacrificially sending their students to a state university only to be greatly saddened by the results of the sacrifice. Mr. Allen states it this way: "Full of high hopes, parents send Jimmy and Susie off to Big U. Soon Susie, the former high-school cheerleader who was so clean and fresh that she almost sparkled, has taken a male 'roommate' and spends more and more of her time in the escapism of drugs. Jimmy, the high-school debate champion, has become a bearded Trotskyite determined to 'destroy the system'. And both brother and sister make no secret of the fact that they consider their middle-class parents to be bores, phonies, and hypocrites."

Mr. Allen points out in his article that the institutions of higher learning in this country are teaching students to be un-American as well as immoral. Citing some examples of courses which are to be found listed in many school catalogues as "relevant", consider these items of interest: "Devilology" at Fordham University, "Studies in the History of Witchcraft" at Brandeis, and Religion 209 at Princeton which consists of pot smoking and obscene chanting to rock music. Other courses listed are Repression and the Movement, The New American Revolution, Revolutionary First Aid, Getting in Touch, Urban Awareness, Contemporary Soviet Civilization, and Imperialism and Revolution.

When we read about such things taking place on the campuses of our state universities we should not be shocked or even surprised. The New York Times reported on January 1, 1972:

"At Yale, as at dozens of other colleges around the country, much of the innovation in student health care has come in sex related areas to meet needs created by changes in student life styles..."

Yale, like so many other large universities, has for several years been supplying students with the 'morning-after' pill for emergency contraception, as well as with a wide variety of more conventional birth control aids. This fall Yale added vasectomies to its list of available options...

At the University of California, Berkeley, the contraceptive clinic that opened two years ago is visited by 4,000 to 6,000 students a year. The University of Nebraska handles 50 to 60 contraceptive cases each week, even with a charge of $15.00 each."

Such a report should not be a surprise when we realize that there are only two kinds of universities - Christian universities and colleges comprise the first group and all others which are not truly Christian fall into the second category of Satan's colleges and universities. The Bible makes it quite clear that there is no middle ground. All schools which are not "for" Jesus Christ are automatically against Him.

Why then do many Christian parents send their boys and girls to state schools or even to private non-Christian schools which are just as determined to "keep up" with the newest trends in educational permissiveness? What is the alternative to Susie and Jimmy turning out as stated above?

In the words of Gary Allen, "The only things Conservative parents of children who will attend such a college can do is to understand what the situation is and make the best possible effort to prepare their children to SURVIVE four years of such higher education." This may be the solution for conservatives, but certainly not for born-again Christians who are commanded to "come out from among them and be ye separate."

As previously stated, there are only two kinds of schools. This is true on the level of kindergarten through the university. The solution to the problem of state education on the university level must begin in kindergarten. Students who are educated with free public education (which is neither free, public nor education) on the lower levels are not going to see the need for Christian education on the university level. Many born again Christian parents are going to stand before God and be asked, "Why did you let Satan educate your children?" Perhaps that would be a good question to ask now! Of course, there are still others who set a year or grade at which the Christian school is no longer needed. What is the best age to turn children over to Satan for education - seventh grade, ninth grade, college?

The only solution for Christians is thoroughly Christian education at all levels. This does not mean a school that has the name "Christian" on it but it means a school with a totally Christian philosophy which in turn directs not only the materials taught but also directs the methods used to teach that material. A school which calls itself "Christian" just because there is a brief Bible class each day is not a Christian school. When Satan's methods and materials are used in "Christian" schools, there is little need for that school's existence.

If Susie and Jimmy are going to succeed in life, they must be born-again and educated in the method which God has ordained. The college chosen by Susie and Jimmy will be the college which follows the educational philosophy of the elementary and especially the high school which they attend. The chances of a student in a public (government) high school going to a thoroughly Christian university are about the same as a student in a thoroughly Christian high school going to a state university. "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

Anti-Christ

has much to say about what goes on. He is manipulated by the Board of Foreign Relations, and then the Illuminati, to bring about a one-world government.

After the First World War, the League of Nations was formed. The League of Nations was doomed to failure from its inception, because the U.S. was not behind it. (We had more sense then than we do now.) After the Second World War, they decided that war was no way to settle our differences, so they amalgamated into what potentially can be a one-world government, the United Nations, housed in New York City.

Do you know that tonight in the U.N., there are 130 member nations? I have been preaching for years that the only missing link in the world government was the admittance of Red China into the United Nations. Red China boasts of having 800 million people. How could there be a one-world government, when 800 million people were not a part of it? Now they are: the missing link has been supplied. We are living in exciting days.

A WORLD CHURCH

His dominion will encompass a world church. It is being set up today so that if you oppose it, it makes you look like you are anti-Christ. But brother, if you do not oppose it, you ARE anti-Christ. In Rev. 17:1, it is called "the great whore that sitteth upon many waters." Isn't that flattering? Verse 5: "MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." Verse 6, says this ecumenical

Stars of the Morning

by "Aunt Carolyn"

A corner nook of hints and tidbits for folks who love boys and girls and want to win them to the Lord Jesus Christ.

"SUN! STAND STILL!"

Whether by camel, donkey, carrier pigeon or smoke signal, news spreads like wild fire of Israel's conquest of the great walled cities of Jericho and Ai. Surrounding kings were shocked and smitten with fear. Who was this General Joshua whose army crushed everything in its path? Wasn't somebody big enough to stop him? Little did they know that Joshua was a man of action compelled by the command of God to move forward and make a clean sweep of the land of Canaan.

Smug smiles crept across enemy faces, however, as they realized the city Gibeon lay next in Joshua's path. Gibeon, that great city like one of the royal cities, larger and stronger than Ai, and protected by an army of mighty warriors -- Ah, yes -- Gibeon would be Joshua's Waterloo! But their proud hopes of Israel's defeat vanished and turned to despair with the Gibeonites, realizing they were not match for God's forces, humbled themselves and made a league with Israel. They joined God's forces; they wanted to be on the winning side.

Instead of following the Gibeonites example, the five surrounding kings did what most rebellious, self-centered youngsters do -- they got mad! In their fury and rebellion they banded together to fight against Gibeon. Yes, they would attack suddenly and whip them soundly. They would teach Gibeon a thing or two.

But the Gibeonites hollered "Help," and Joshua, a man of his word, and all his valiant warriors came to the rescue. What could they do, though, against five consolidated armies? The odds were too great and the enemy had a head start. But God's voice came in assurance and strength to Joshua. "Don't be afraid. I have given them into your hands. Not one of them shall stand before you."

That was all Joshua needed. "Forward, March!", he shouted. "Double time!", he barked, and his troops moved the entire distance from Gilgal to Gibeon in less than a day. They marched all night and fell like a thunderbolt on the Amorites in the surprise attack. The morning sun shone on glittering spears as the Israelite soldiers fought furiously against their enemies. In their terrible fright the enemy men ran for their lives up the next mountain. But they didn't stop at the top to make a stand, they ran pell-mell down the other side with Joshua's warriors at their heels, slashing with their swords all the way til enemy soldiers fell on every side. Once it seemed they were going to outrun their pursuers and get away, but God sent such an upheaval in the weather that hail stones fell from the sky like guided missiles. They didn't feel like marshmallows when they hit, either. Just as an Amorite soldier with his sword, a whopping hail stone bonked him on his head, his eye-balls crossed, and over he keeled. Just as another Amorite thought he had outrun and outsmarted his enemy, God threw a huge chunk of ice (hailstone) like a cannon ball on his foot. When he stopped to nurse his big toe, another hail stone hit him on the head and put him away forever. Oh, the terror, the fear, caused by the thunder and lightning and deluge of that hail storm! More of the enemy men were killed by the hailstones than the Israelite soldiers killed with their swords. I'd say God surely had a good aim, wouldn't you? You can't outrun or outsmart Him!

But it looked like the ones who survived the storm might escape. The storm had frightened them so badly they rushed in wild confusion to try to save their lives. Joshua couldn't let them get away! But it was getting late in the day. The sun moved slowly toward the west and a faint crescent of the moon began to show in the sky. If night came all would be lost. The enemy would find refuge in the mountains and move under the cover of darkness to safety. After all the marching and fighting the men had done, would they have one-half victory?

Then Joshua, that mighty, distinguished General, spoke to the Lord. Yes, sir, General Joshua knew how to pray. He knew how to talk with his Commander-in-Chief. That's one reason he was such a good General. God could trust him to give orders, because Joshua had learned to receive and carry out orders from God. So Joshua talked with God -- and the next thing his officers and recruits knew, Joshua was standing on a mountain summit with his arms outstretched toward heaven, his figure making a striking silhouette against the afternoon sky. Then with a mighty voice that echoed out across the valley and stirred the heart of every soldier under his command, he shouted, "Sun! Stand still! -- and Moon, too!" And instantly God froze His timing devices, and the sun and moon stopped dead in their orbit. What a thrill! "This we have to see! Let's watch a minute. Let's see if it has really stopped." But in an instant came the General's command, "Get moving! What are you standing there like statues for? God has given us extra time to fight and conquer. Get moving!" A war whoop went up, and God's army moved forward with new determination, strength and faith to conquer.

Hours seemed like days. The Amorites were faint and exhausted. They desperately watched for darkness to settle and give them some protection and relief. Oh, why didn't the sun set? Why wasn't it getting dark? Could it be that the Israelites' God could control even the sun and moon and universe? They had never known such a God as this. No wonder Joshua's army moved forward like a relentless storm whose path could not be broken. Oh, the Israelites fought valiantly, and they conquered! They didn't stop until the enemy was defeated!

In the meantime, an excited corpsman informed Joshua that the five enemy kings had deserted their troops and were hiding in a cave at Makkedah.

Joshua was surely not surprised. Those scaredy-cats with big mouths and hot tempers didn't have the character to stick with their men when the battle got tough, and sought only their own protection and welfare. But Joshua didn't have time to stop his important work for God to tend to those quitters right then. He just ordered the cave blocked shut and a guard detail to watch it.

But when the battle was won he came back to make an object lesson of those enemies of God. As they cowered in terror against the cave wall, one by one Joshua had them brought out in the sight of all the people. Then Joshua had several of his captains, who had stood shoulder to shoulder with him in the battle, faithful and unwavering in the fight, put their feet on those kings' royal necks, and said, "Fear not nor be dismayed! Be strong and of good courage; for thus shall the Lord do to all your enemies whom ye fight." How Joshua encouraged his people. At evening time they were taken down and buried in the very cave where they had hidden. Their hiding place, their refuge became their grave. So it will be with all who look for safety and salvation in anything or anyone less than the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. "In God is my salvation...and my refuge."

So God did a marvelous thing. He stopped His clock for almost a whole day. No man, Israelite or enemy, could deny Whose Hand had given the victory. Joshua and his faithful soldiers went back to camp in peace, and nobody around dared open his mouth against God or His people.

You can also be a faithful victorious soldier for Jesus Christ -- just by receiving Him by faith as your personal Savior, and second by standing close to Him through His Word and in prayer, and like Joshua, being loyal and obedient to Him.

Silent Majority

Silence Explained

By Max Rafferty

HAVE YOU wondered why everyone seems to be so sad these days? I don't mean sad as in "sad sack," but sad as in plain old downhearted.

Well, wonder no more. Your helpful columnist has come up with the answer, and it's this: In a democratic society dedicated to the proposition that the will of the majority should prevail, people tend to become increasingly sad as the will of the majority is told to get lost.

Let me show you what I mean, with a couple of examples from my own field of education:

1-A vast majority of parents want their children taught to read via the phonics method, with Junior memorizing his A-B-C's, learning their sounds, combining them in syllables and finally putting the syllables into words. In the typical school of today, Junior instead is taught to read by the "Egyptian hieroglyphic" method, trying to recognize "whole words" and then to draw pictures of them.

2-The average parent thinks "social studies" is for the birds, and yearns wistfully for the days when history was taught as history, geography as geography and civics as civics. Yet they see these ancient and highly differentiated academic disciplines being hanged, drawn, quartered and mixed up all together in a steaming, bubbling witches' brew labeled "social studies," which offers the children dubious gobbets of undigested and variegated information designed to confuse them completely about virtually everything.

See what I mean? The voice of the people is clearly not being heard by us educators, or if it is, we are studiously ignoring it. What we're really doing is saying that the great majority is wrong, and that we -- the tiny minority -- are not only right but are properly imposing our will upon everybody else. And that, as I say, makes an awful lot of parents very sad indeed.

It's not just in education that this kind of undemocratic carrying-on is occurring, however. Shortly after the Supreme Court opened the floodgates to pornography in the Sixties, a whole series of public opinion polls showed that the American people overwhelmingly wanted the fifth banned and kept off the streets, out of the theaters and away from their children.

Similarly, when the high court dealt a virtual deathblow to capital punishment late last year, a Gallup poll dated Jan. 19, 1973, reported that 57 percent of the pollees wanted the death penalty not only restored but invoked more frequently. Recent soundings indicate that public support for the death penalty has risen sharply since January.

But we still have legalized pornography and an outlawed death penalty. In a nation supposedly dedicated to majority rule, why?

There's more.

Hardly anyone wants forced busing. We have it, though. Somebody's shoving it down our throats.

Most Americans want to stop giving their money away in carload lots to jerky little comic-opera nations who hate us at home and who insult us in the United Nations. Our money still flows overseas like Old Man River, however. Somebody keeps it flowing.

During the early Sixties, most Americans wanted to go all out to beat the Communists in Vietnam, just as we had gone all out to lick the Kaiser and to stomp Hitler. We didn't do it, though. Somebody wouldn't let us.

And to carry the thing right down to weekly TV entertainment, when Lawrence Welk's contract was allowed to lapse by his employing network, old "Wunnerful, wunnerful" promptly syndicated his program and ended up with more money and a lot more stations running his show than he had had before, thus proving beyond per-adventure that the overwhelming majority of his viewers still wanted to watch him. But somebody tried to say

I'm not going to try to guess who "somebody" is. That way lies paranoia, and one of my gentle readers is sure to suggest that I'm in need of at least a prefrontal lobotomy.

All I'm saying is it's very, very strange that in democratic America the majority is increasingly frustrated in achieving its goals. Contrariwise, it's not strange at all that so many members of that great majority are heartsick, sorely tried and just plain sad.

The Anti-Christ

church is drunken with the blood of the saints and the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. So that you will not mistake her identity, God tells you where she is located. Verse 9: "The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sitteth."

Three years ago when we were entering the city of Rome, the Roman Catholic guide boastfully said, "You are now entering the only city in the world which sits on seven hills." He had no idea of what he spoke. Not only will the political capital of the world be Rome, but the church capital of the world will be Rome also. You know, the thing I cannot understand is that across this country I have people visiting my meetings who belong to churches that are part of the National Council of Churches. They are putting their money in an offering plate when their money is going to be used to obliterate the name of Jesus Christ from the face of the earth.

Brother, I would hate to stand before Jesus Christ knowing my money and my influence went to Anti-Christ and the National Council of Churches. God has one word of advice for anybody in a church that supports the National Council of Churches. Rev. 18:4 "And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." Have nothing to do with the ecumenical church.

A WORLD MARKET

Notice please, a world government, a world church, and Number Three, a world market. Rev. 13:16,17 "And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name." In the last half of the Tribulation, no one will be able to buy or sell unless he has fallen down and worshipped the Anti-Christ or unless he has the mark of the beast, either in his hand or on his forehead.

The problem primarily facing the world today is a problem of inflation, which has brought about a monetary crisis. Your dollar is becoming worth less every day of your life.

I read a book not long ago by a Godly man named William Kantlon, who has spent the last twelve years studying the economic situation in the world. He has spent hours in conferences with the leading economic minds of the world; he has attended every major monetary fund convention. He says that at the 1967 world monetary fund convention a proposal was adopted to be put into use in the 1970's--a proposal that would do away with all existing currency. In other words, you would have no dollars or cents in your pocket.

We are rapidly becoming a credit card society, and removing all existing currency would make way for the new system of "Paper Gold". You are already hearing Secretary Schultz talking about "Paper Gold", and every time you hear it, lift up your head, because your redemption draws nigh. He is talking about "special drawing ranks" and "Paper Gold". It is like Grapenuts--neither grapes nor nuts. "Paper Gold" has every country listed by a number on a ledger; the number is called the "special drawing rate". Beside the special drawing rate is the amount of money that country has. Now, this is supposed to be scaled down from an international to a national to an individual level, when every person, every home in the world will one day have a telephone. That phone is not for socializing, but is attached to computers. A man in Grand Rapids, Michigan told me the company for which he worked is producing thousands and thousands of phones attached to computers that will be put into the homes one day. In order to buy or sell anything, you will have to pick up your phone, tell the computer your special drawing rate, and in turn the computer will tell you how much you can buy. In that day all people will have the same meager subsistence that everyone else has. You say, wouldn't it be wonderful if we lived in a socialized society? Brother, that's the way it is going to be, but the ones who will be the "fat cats" will be the Illuminati. Every man will have just simply a slave subsistence, and men will not be able to live on that. The Bible says there will be a famine world-wide. In that day men's skin will turn black like an oven because of the terrible famine. Every man will have the same meager amount everyone else will have. This is why I cannot understand why any Christian will hoard God's money. I have an insurance money in my church (all due respect to insurance men), who came to me and said, "Brother Ron, I think since you are not under Social Security, you ought to have a retirement program. We have a great one, and it pays great

by Dr. Paul A. Kienel
Executive Director of CACS

Do Christian schools care about discipline? Yes, but not to the extreme of "cruel and unusual punishment" nor the other extreme of "everybody doing his own thing." A major reason why the Christian school movement is the fastest growing educational movement in America is because Christian schools are an attempt to bring back some "normalcy" to the process of your child's education.

The year 1850 was a colossal attempt to bring about the beginning of the end of Bible-oriented education that had been so characteristic of the American classroom -- especially up through the McGuffey reader years. 1850 was the year that Horace Mann, a Unitarian, convinced the U.S. Congress to provide "free" public education for everybody. He told them that "education for all" would save the taxpayers money because the Messianic nature of education would redeem society to the point we could literally empty all the jails and prisons in America.

I regret that Horace Mann is not with us today to witness the outcome of his erroneous thinking. Not only is government sponsored public school education the largest single expense for taxpayers but our jails and prisons are bursting at the seams. Education by itself is not a redemptive force. Generation after generation of Americans have since been subjected to antichrist behavioristic philosophies that daily undermine everything for which Bible-believing families stand. The behavioristic philosophy is as follows: 1-Man is supreme (therefore there is no Higher Power). 2-Man evolved from lower forms of life (therefore there was no act of creation). 3-Man is an animal (therefore he could not have a soul). 4-Man is inherently good (therefore is not in need of a Savior). 5-Common practice sets the standard (therefore there are no moral absolutes). 6-Criminals are merely antisocial (therefore they are not sinners). 7-"Maladjustment" explains all adverse human behavior (therefore there is no such thing as guilt). 8-Bad environment is to blame for all evil (therefore man is not responsible).

You say, "what does all of this have to do with discipline?" It has everything to do with discipline. Your philosophy of the nature of man greatly determines your philosophy of the discipline of man. If you believe that your Johnny came into this world with a human nature that is basically good, not only is your view in direct contradiction to the teachings of God's Word, which says, "The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked." (Jeremiah 17:9) but you will have serious reservations about administering discipline to Johnny whom you believe to be on his merry way to perfection. Don't you believe it. Johnny not only needs discipline he wants discipline at home and at school.

Dr. James C. Dobson, author of DARE TO DISCIPLINE, a best seller, is a strong supporter of Christian school education. His daughter attends San Gabriel Christian School in California. In his book, DARE TO DISCIPLINE, Dr. Dobson cites an interesting incident regarding a child's need for knowing where the boundaries are. He said,

"During the early days of the progressive education movement, one enthusiastic theorist decided to take down the chain link fence that surrounded the nursery school yard. He thought the children would feel more freedom of movement without that visible barrier surrounding them. When the fence was removed, however, the boys and girls huddled near the center of the play yard. Not only did they not wander away, they didn't even venture to the edge of the grounds." Dr. Dobson says, "There is security in defined limits." Children want discipline and don't let some fuzzy-headed guru from the progressive education establishment tell you otherwise.

Children at home and at school respond to discipline if it is administered in love. Early in my ministry as Executive Director of CACS I conducted a series of workshops for Christian school teachers in fourteen areas of California. The topic of the workshop series was, "Discipline in the Christian School." As I traveled from city to city and discussed this topic with several hundred Christian school teachers, three interesting facts about Christian school discipline began to emerge. 1-Students are less of a discipline problem in school if they have received Christ as Savior because they are at ease within themselves and are better adjusted individuals. The miracle transformation of salvation makes a dramatic difference in the total outlook of a youngster. 2-Students are less of a discipline problem in school if their parents consistently demonstrate their love for them in words, actions and example. Youngsters are seldom a problem in school if their home is filled with genuine parental love -- the kind of love that says, "I love you too much to allow you to do something that I know will hurt you." The kind of love that sets reasonable limits and sticks to them. 3-Students are less of a problem in school if parents and teachers will reinforce one another regarding Johnny's behavior at school. If the image and authority of either is diminished by the other, Johnny will naturally take the road of least resistance and the whole system breaks down.

Christian schools care about discipline because without it students learn little except to hate school. Teachers who maintain order are the teachers who are most respected and long remembered. Dr. Dobson says, "A teacher who controls a class without being oppressive is almost always loved by her students . . . children admire strict teachers because chaos is nerve-racking. Screaming and hitting and wiggling are fun for about ten minutes; then the confusion begins to get tiresome and irritating."

Christian schools care about discipline because God cares about discipline. Hebrews 12:6, and 7 says, "For those whom the Lord loves He disciplines, and He scourges every son whom He receives. It is for discipline that you endure; God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline?"

dividends". I said, "Brother, I have a program that pays greater dividends than you will ever know about." He said, "What is it?", and I said, "Giving and investing in God's work, Brother. It pays the greatest dividends in all the world". I'll tell you something. When Jesus Christ comes again He is not going to find Ron Comfort with thousands of dollars in the bank that Anti-Christ is going to get. I can't understand why God's people will argue about tithing. Brother, that is the least that a man can do. May I say that there has never been a time since I graduated from college that I did not give at least a Tithe to God. I believe the greatest dividend in all the world is investing in God's work. Some of you do not even have a will, and when you are gone from here, the Anti-Christ and the state is going to get your money. What you ought to do is go to a lawyer and make your will out to a fundamental, Bible believing church and invest your money in the work of God.

HIS DESIGN

Turn again to Revelation 13. We have noticed the description of the beast, the duration of the beast, the dominion of the beast, and now Number Four, the design of the beast. Rev. 13:1 - "...And upon his heads the name of blasphemy." Verses 5-6: "And there was given unto him to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven."

So his design will be one of blasphemy. My friend, has there ever been a day that there has been more blasphemy than today? You can't sit down on a plane or in a restaurant without some blasphemer using God's name in vain. You can follow grade school kids to school in the morning and listen to their conversation, and they are using God's name in vain. In Phoenix, a Second Grade teacher told me, "Ron, do you know that when boys in my room get mad, the first thing they do is curse God's name?" Second Graders! Aren't we living in a day of blasphemy? Look at the speakers who are in demand on our college campuses. Is it men who faithfully proclaim the Word of God? No, they don't want to hear us. They want to hear Jerry Rubin, the Stokeley Carmichaels, the Madelin Murray O'haires; the people who can curse and blaspheme God the loudest. They are the ones who are in demand.

A young lady came to me in Michigan and said, "Ron, have you heard the latest Rock 'n Roll song? (By the way, Rock 'n Roll is the greatest tool for blasphemy in the world.) She said, "In that entire song there are two words. The first word is "God", and the second word is "damn". Over and over and over again in the entire song are these two words: "God damn".

Twenty years ago, if a man had written a piece of garbage

Greenville, S.C. "The Untold Explo Story," an 80-page book "written to provide for those Christians who were not able to attend Explo '72 a picture of that event not found in other writings," has just been released by the Bob Jones University Press, Greenville, S.C.

The expose was written by John Russell, a pseudonym to protect the author's identity. According to the publisher, "The revelation would deny him further unlimited freedom of movement in the activities of the New Evangelicals."

In his preface, Mr. Russell says he deals "with the spiritual disease evident there and examines its characteristics, its promoters, its manifestation, and its underlying causes. . . . Our main objective is to put factual information into your hands and to expose the spiritual decay at Explo '72."

The author places the responsibility of Explo '72 upon Dr. Bill Bright, founder and president of Campus Crusade, and Dr. Billy Graham, honorary chairman of Explo '72. He says that Campus Crusade for Christ is the organization which undertook the project and accepted the credit for Explo '72 accomplishments.

Numerous "shocking" photographs taken by Mr. Russell at the youth gathering in Texas are included in the book.

"The Untold Explo Story" is available from the Bob Jones University Press for $1.95 each. Please add 10 percent for postage and handling. Minimum is 35 cents. Quantity and bookstore discounts available.

The Anti-Christ

like "Jesus Christ Superstar", unsaved people would have been ready to string him up, but there are young people who claim to be Christians who have that garbage in their record files. It makes Judas Iscariot the hero and Jesus Christ the villain. It says Jesus was guilty of having immorality with Mary Magdalene, and she says, "He's just a man, He's just a man". I tell you, we have become accustomed to a life of blasphemy. In Moscow, in one of the leading papers a cartoon was pictured in flaming colors. The central figure in the cartoon was Jesus Christ. There were a number of simple figures around Him who were supposed to be His disciples. They were gnawing on His arms and legs until all the flesh was gone, and there was nothing left but bones. There was a priest standing beside Him filling a cup of blood with one hand, and drinking a cup of blood with the other hand. Bowels were severed open and those disciples were drawing nourishment from those bowels. The caption underneath the cartoon said, "Take ye and eat. This is my body which is broken for you". My friend, how long is God going to allow such blasphemy?

His design will not only be blasphemy, but it will also be persecution. Revelation 13:7 says, "And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them:

and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations." That means he is literally going to war with the saints of God. Rev. 6:9-10 - "And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?" When Jesus died on the cross, it was a cry of grace when He said, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do". When they stoned Stephen in Acts 6:7, it was a cry of mercy when he said, "Lord, lay not this sin to their charge", but in the tribulation period, the saints of God will not be crying for grace. They are not going to be crying for mercy. They are going to be crying for judgment and vengeance. They are going to say, "Lord, how long are You going to let them curse God and blaspheme Your holy Name?" Thank God their prayer is soon to be answered.

HIS DOOM

Number Five, we have the doom of the beast. In Zechariah 14, the Bible says, there is coming a day when all nations will converge upon the Jews. In Nebuchadnezzar's dream in Daniel 2, he saw a large image made of various metallic substances from the head of gold, to the feet of clay and iron. This metallic image was to picture all the kingdoms of the world, the past, the present and the future. The Bible says, that a stone was cut out of the mountain which smote the image, and this stone set up a kingdom that would last forever and ever. Thank God that stone was Jesus Christ. One day the kingdoms of this world are going to become the kingdoms of our Lord Jesus Christ, and He will reign for ever and ever.

In Zechariah 14, it says all nations will converge upon Palestine. The Russians will march down over the northern field on horseback during the last three-and-one-half years of the tribulation period. Do you know that Russia has more horses than any other nation under the sun? And do you know that Russia has a superior breed of horses such as no other nation can boast? Millions will march out of the Asian nations over the Euphrates River on horseback as the Euphrates is dried up. The Arab nations and the African nations will come up out of the south and converge upon the Jews. It looks as if the Jews are going to be obliterated, but thank God, the Stone cut out of the mountain steps out on the scene. The Lord of Glory appears on the behalf of the Jewish nation. Rev. 19:11-16 - "And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make wars. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

My friend, when King Jesus comes at the Battle of Armageddon, the Bible does not say that He will have a weapon in his hand. It simply says that He will have a sword in His mouth. Isaiah 11:4 says He will slay the wicked with the breath of His lips. The consummation of all the wickedness will take place at the Battle of Armageddon, and Jesus will commit men to fall in the streets and let their blood draw. Jesus Christ is going to call the buzzards of the air to come down and get their supper. The Book of Ezekiel teaches that it will be such a terrible mess that it will take seven months to bury all the dead bodies. It will take seven years to clean up all the dead carnage lying in the road. I'll tell you that is going to be an age of justice, when every Christ-rejector and God-hater will get exactly what is coming to him. No one will be able to point to God and say He is unjust. But thank God, Rev. 19:19-20 says, "And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make wars against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone."

If Jesus comes tonight and you are left behind, you are going into the tribulation period, and you will worship the Anti-Christ. Rev. 14:9-11 - "And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name."

So, my friend, if Jesus comes tonight, and you are not saved, 1. you will go into the Tribulation, 2. you will not get saved, 3. you will fall down and worship the Anti-Christ, and then, 4. you will someday be cast into hell with the Anti-Christ for ever and ever. The Bible says that if any man has an ear, let him hear.
